PATERSON PUBLIC SCHOOL BOARD LEADERSHIP DUO REFLECTS ON ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE PAST TWO YEARS

The district’s first women to serve together as board president and vice president look back on how far the district has come after their two terms in board leadership

PATERSON – As the end of their second term serving together was drawing to a close, Board of Education Commissioners Oshin Castillo and Nakima Redmon gave a personal interview in which they reflected on the accomplishments made during the past two years while they served as the board’s president and vice president.

The hour-long interview has been divided into a series of episodes and made available to the public on the district’s You Tube channel and social media platforms.
